

Case Operations Review

Period covered Jul 2024 – Jun 2026

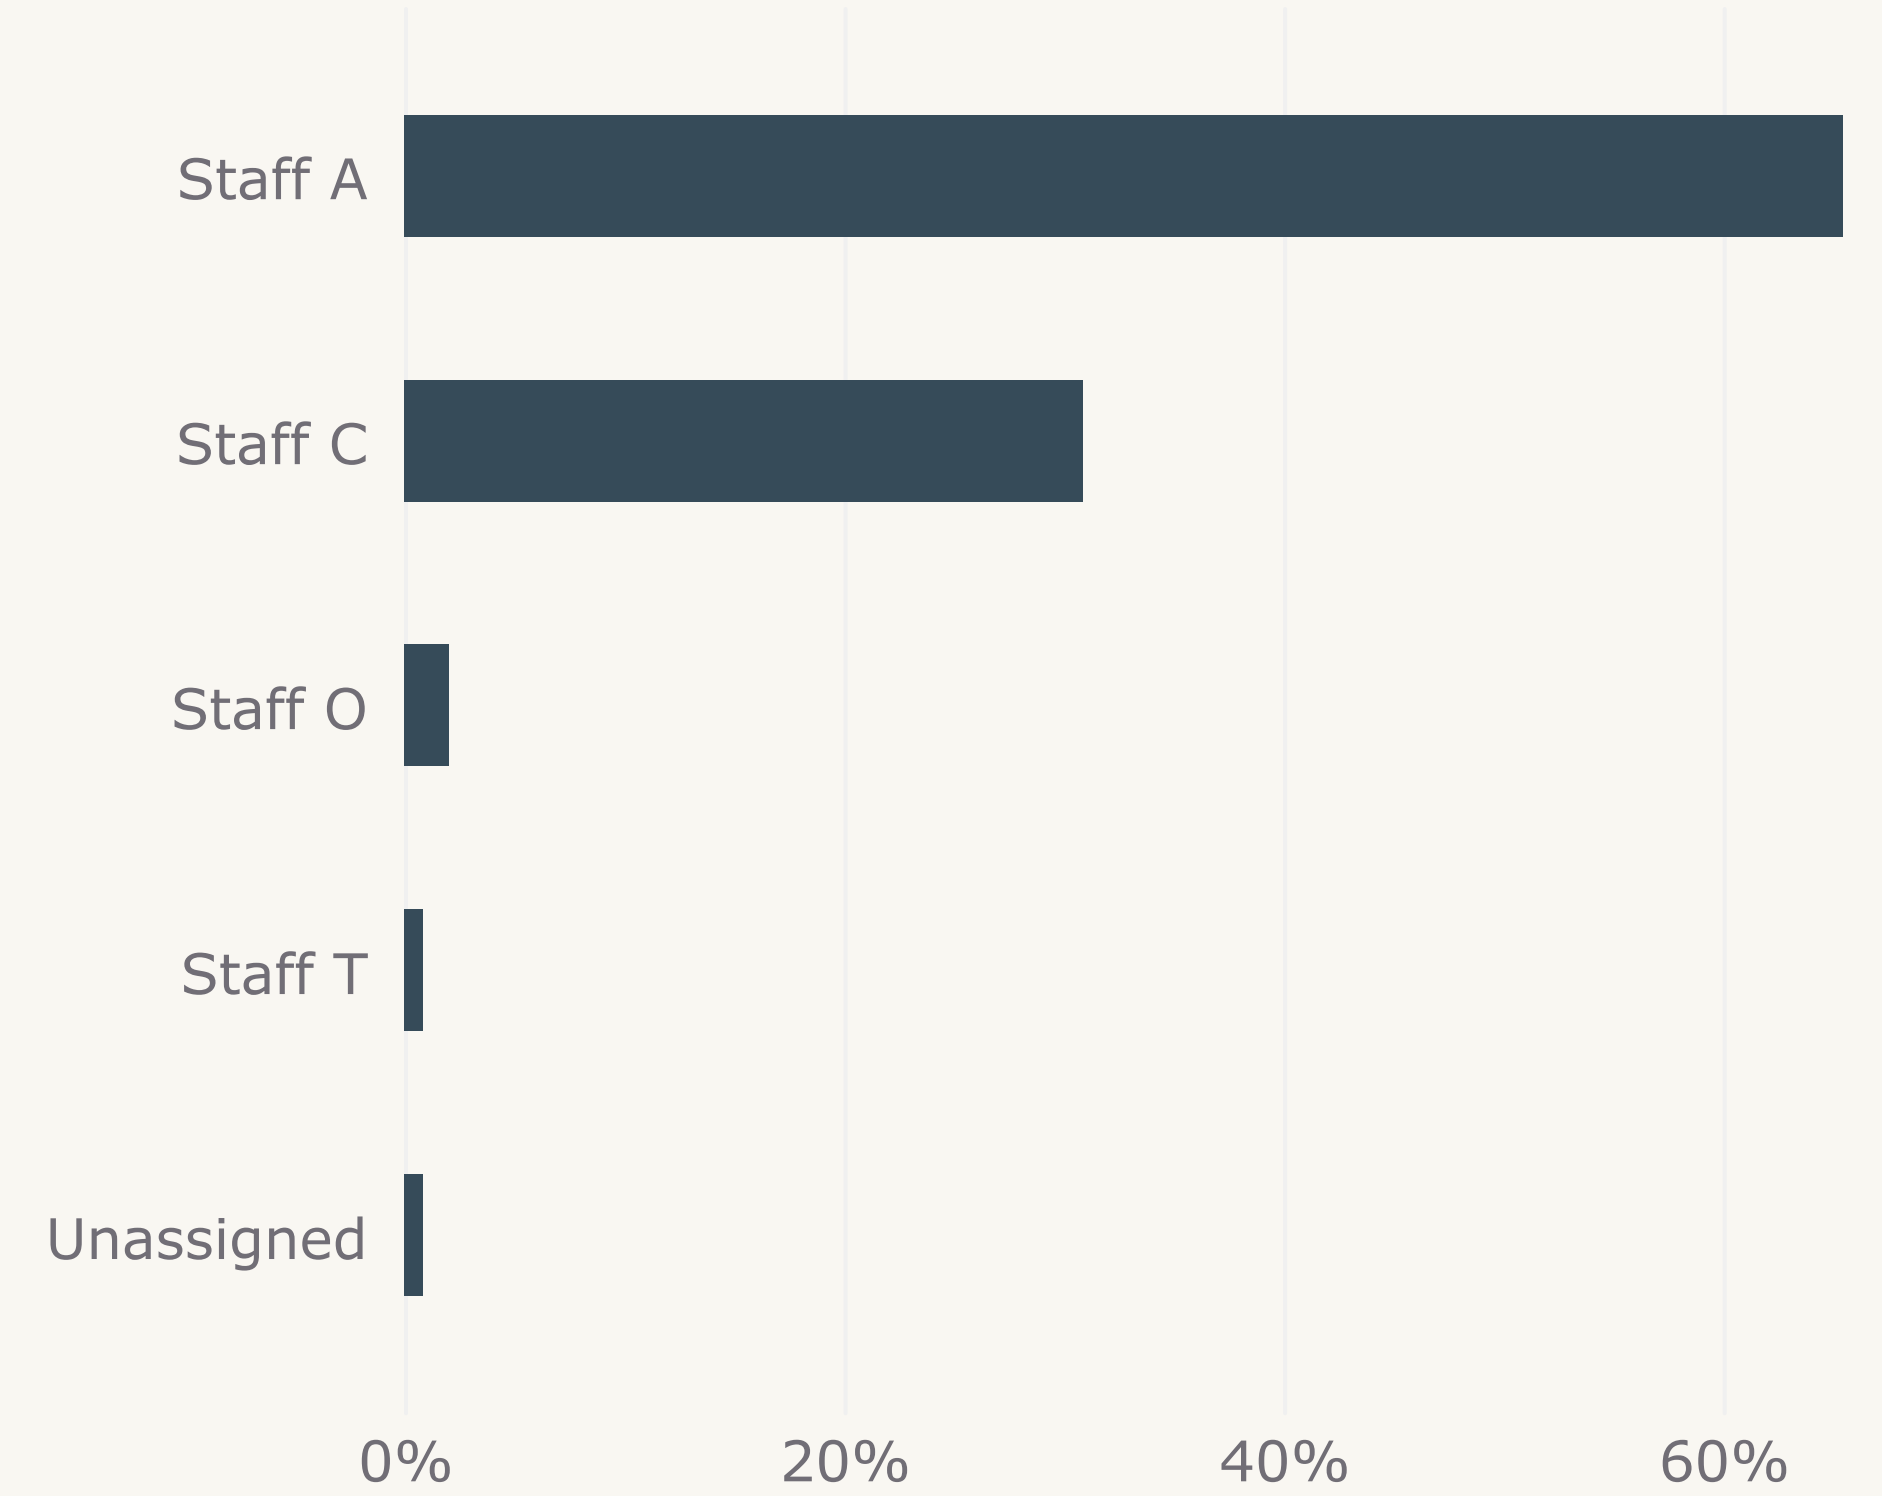

How many cases, and how fast do they move?

599 cases · 6 days to offer letter · 16 to CoE · 36 to lodgement

Total cases 599	Days to lodgement 36
Days to offer letter 6	Days to CoE 16

Where does the business come from?

sales volume, not workload

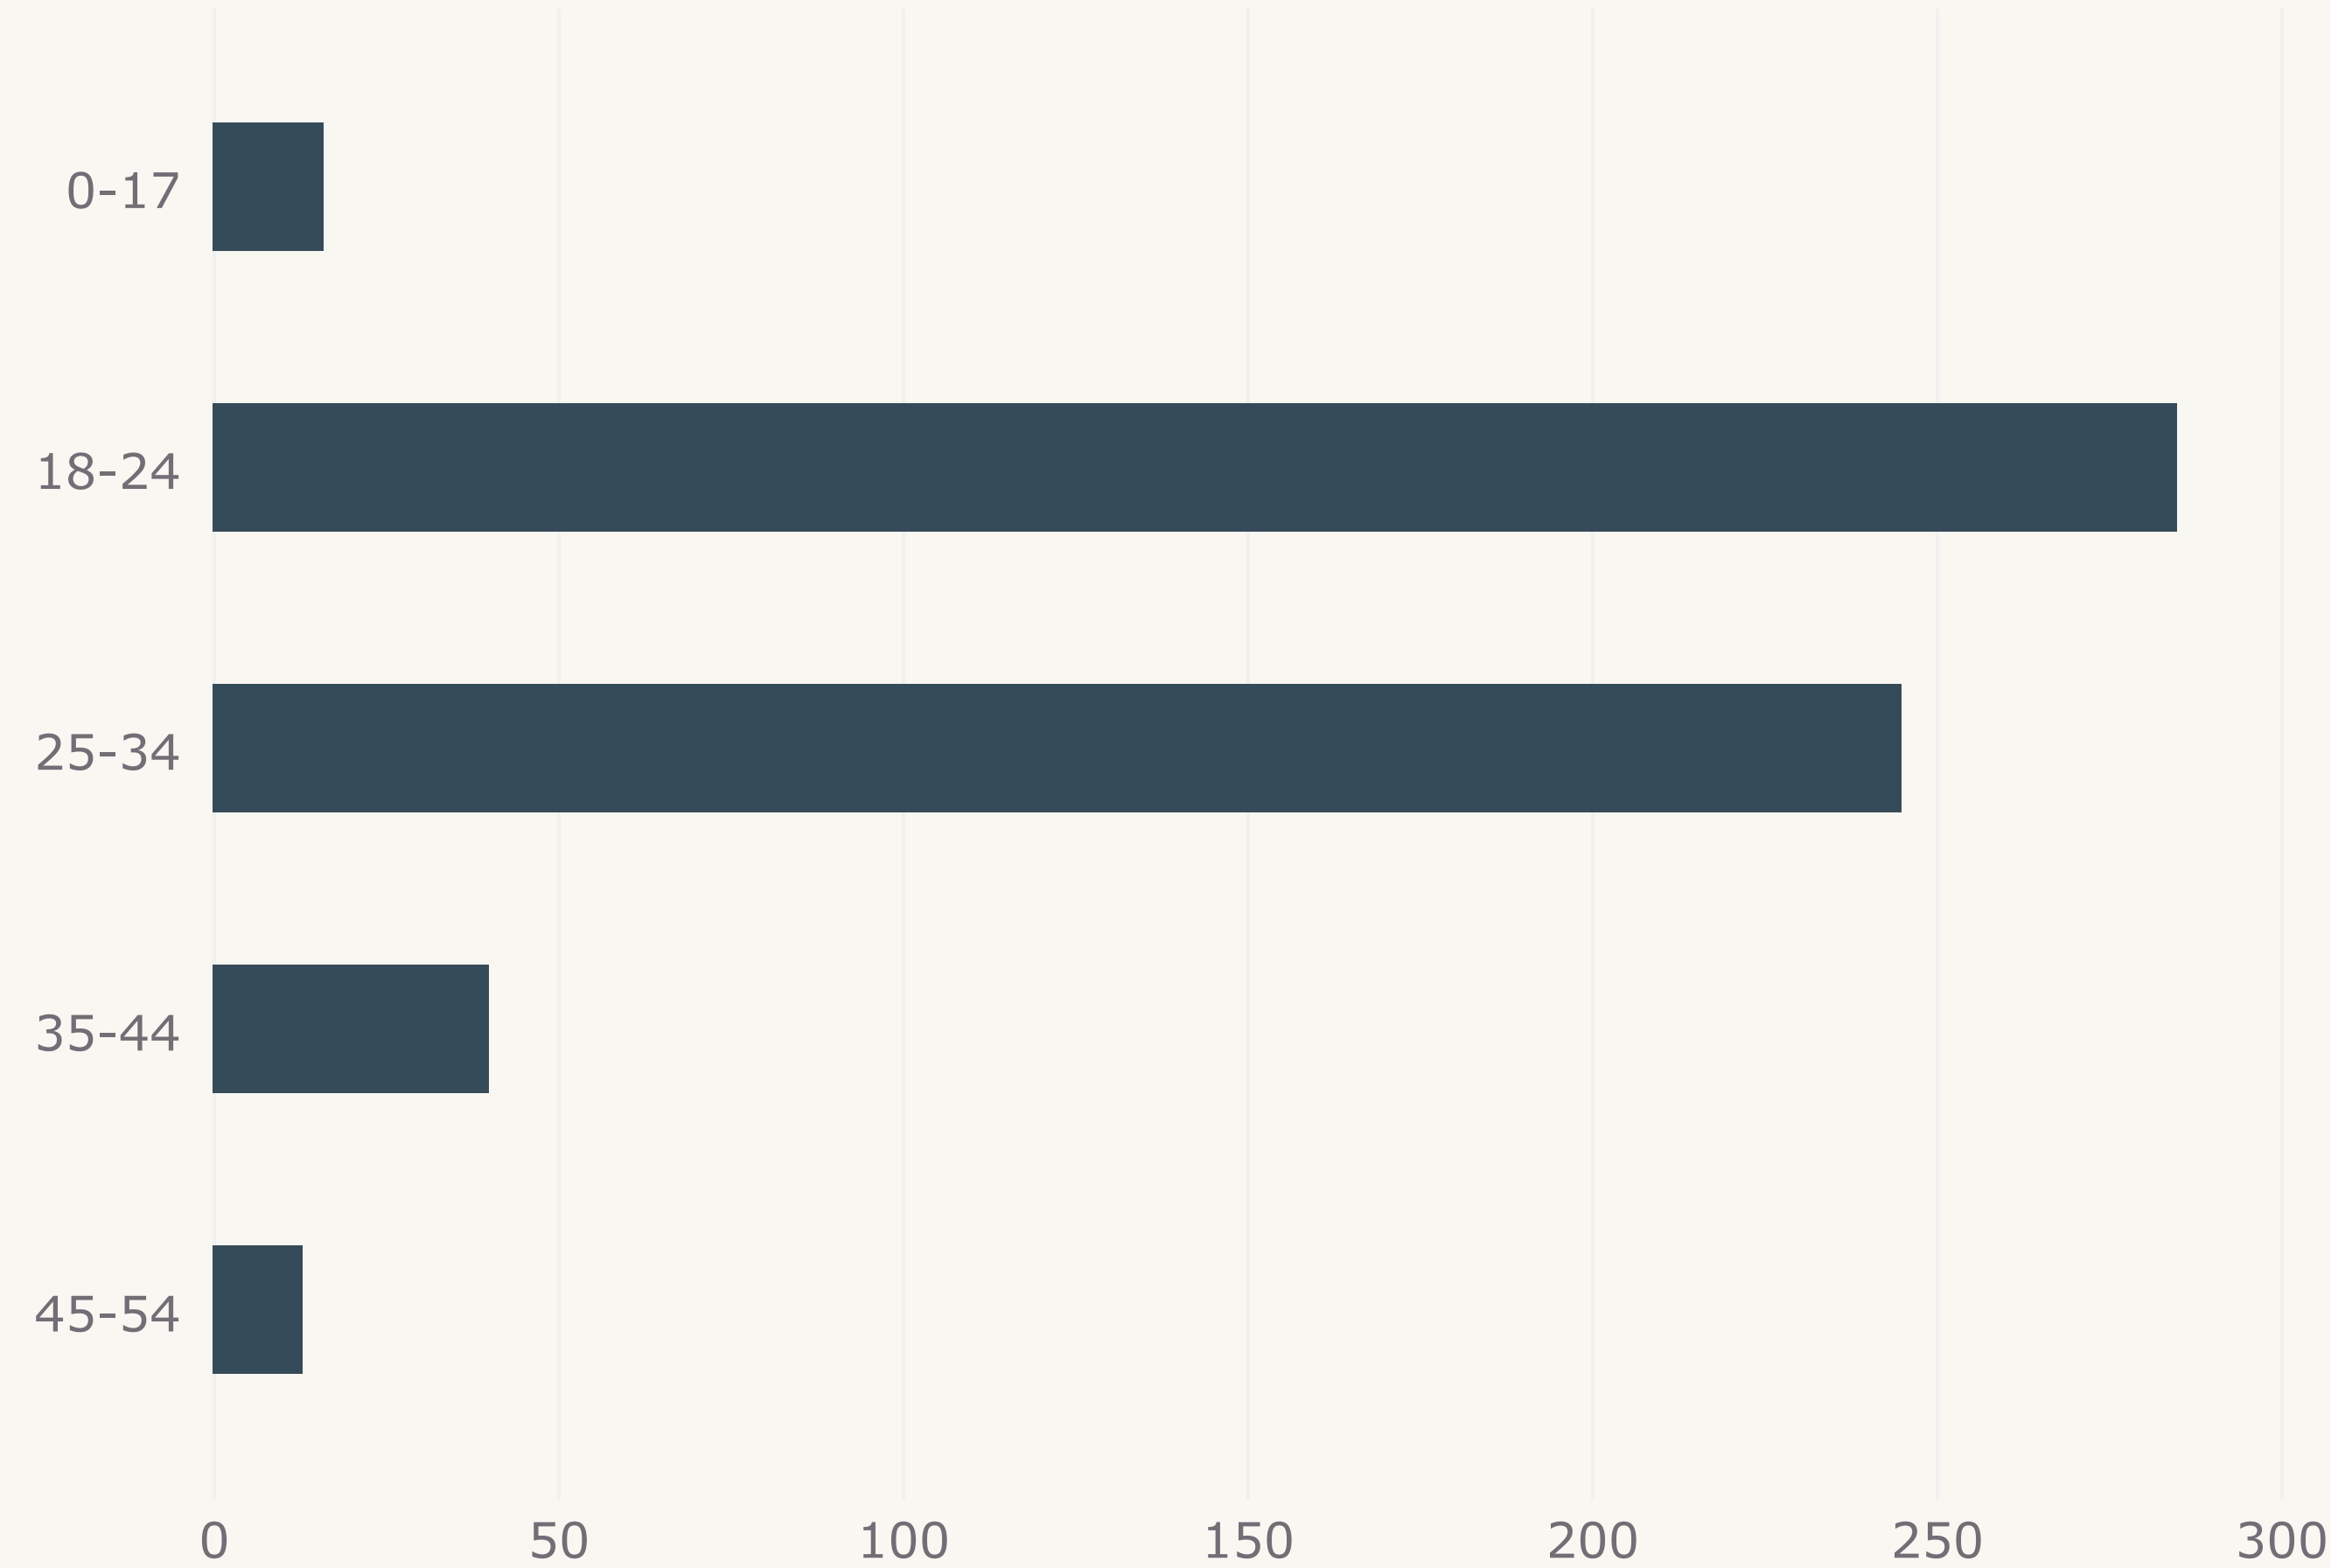

Priority

- ☐ Select all
- ☐ URGENT
- ☐ High
- ☐ Medium
- ☐ Low
- ☐ Unspecified

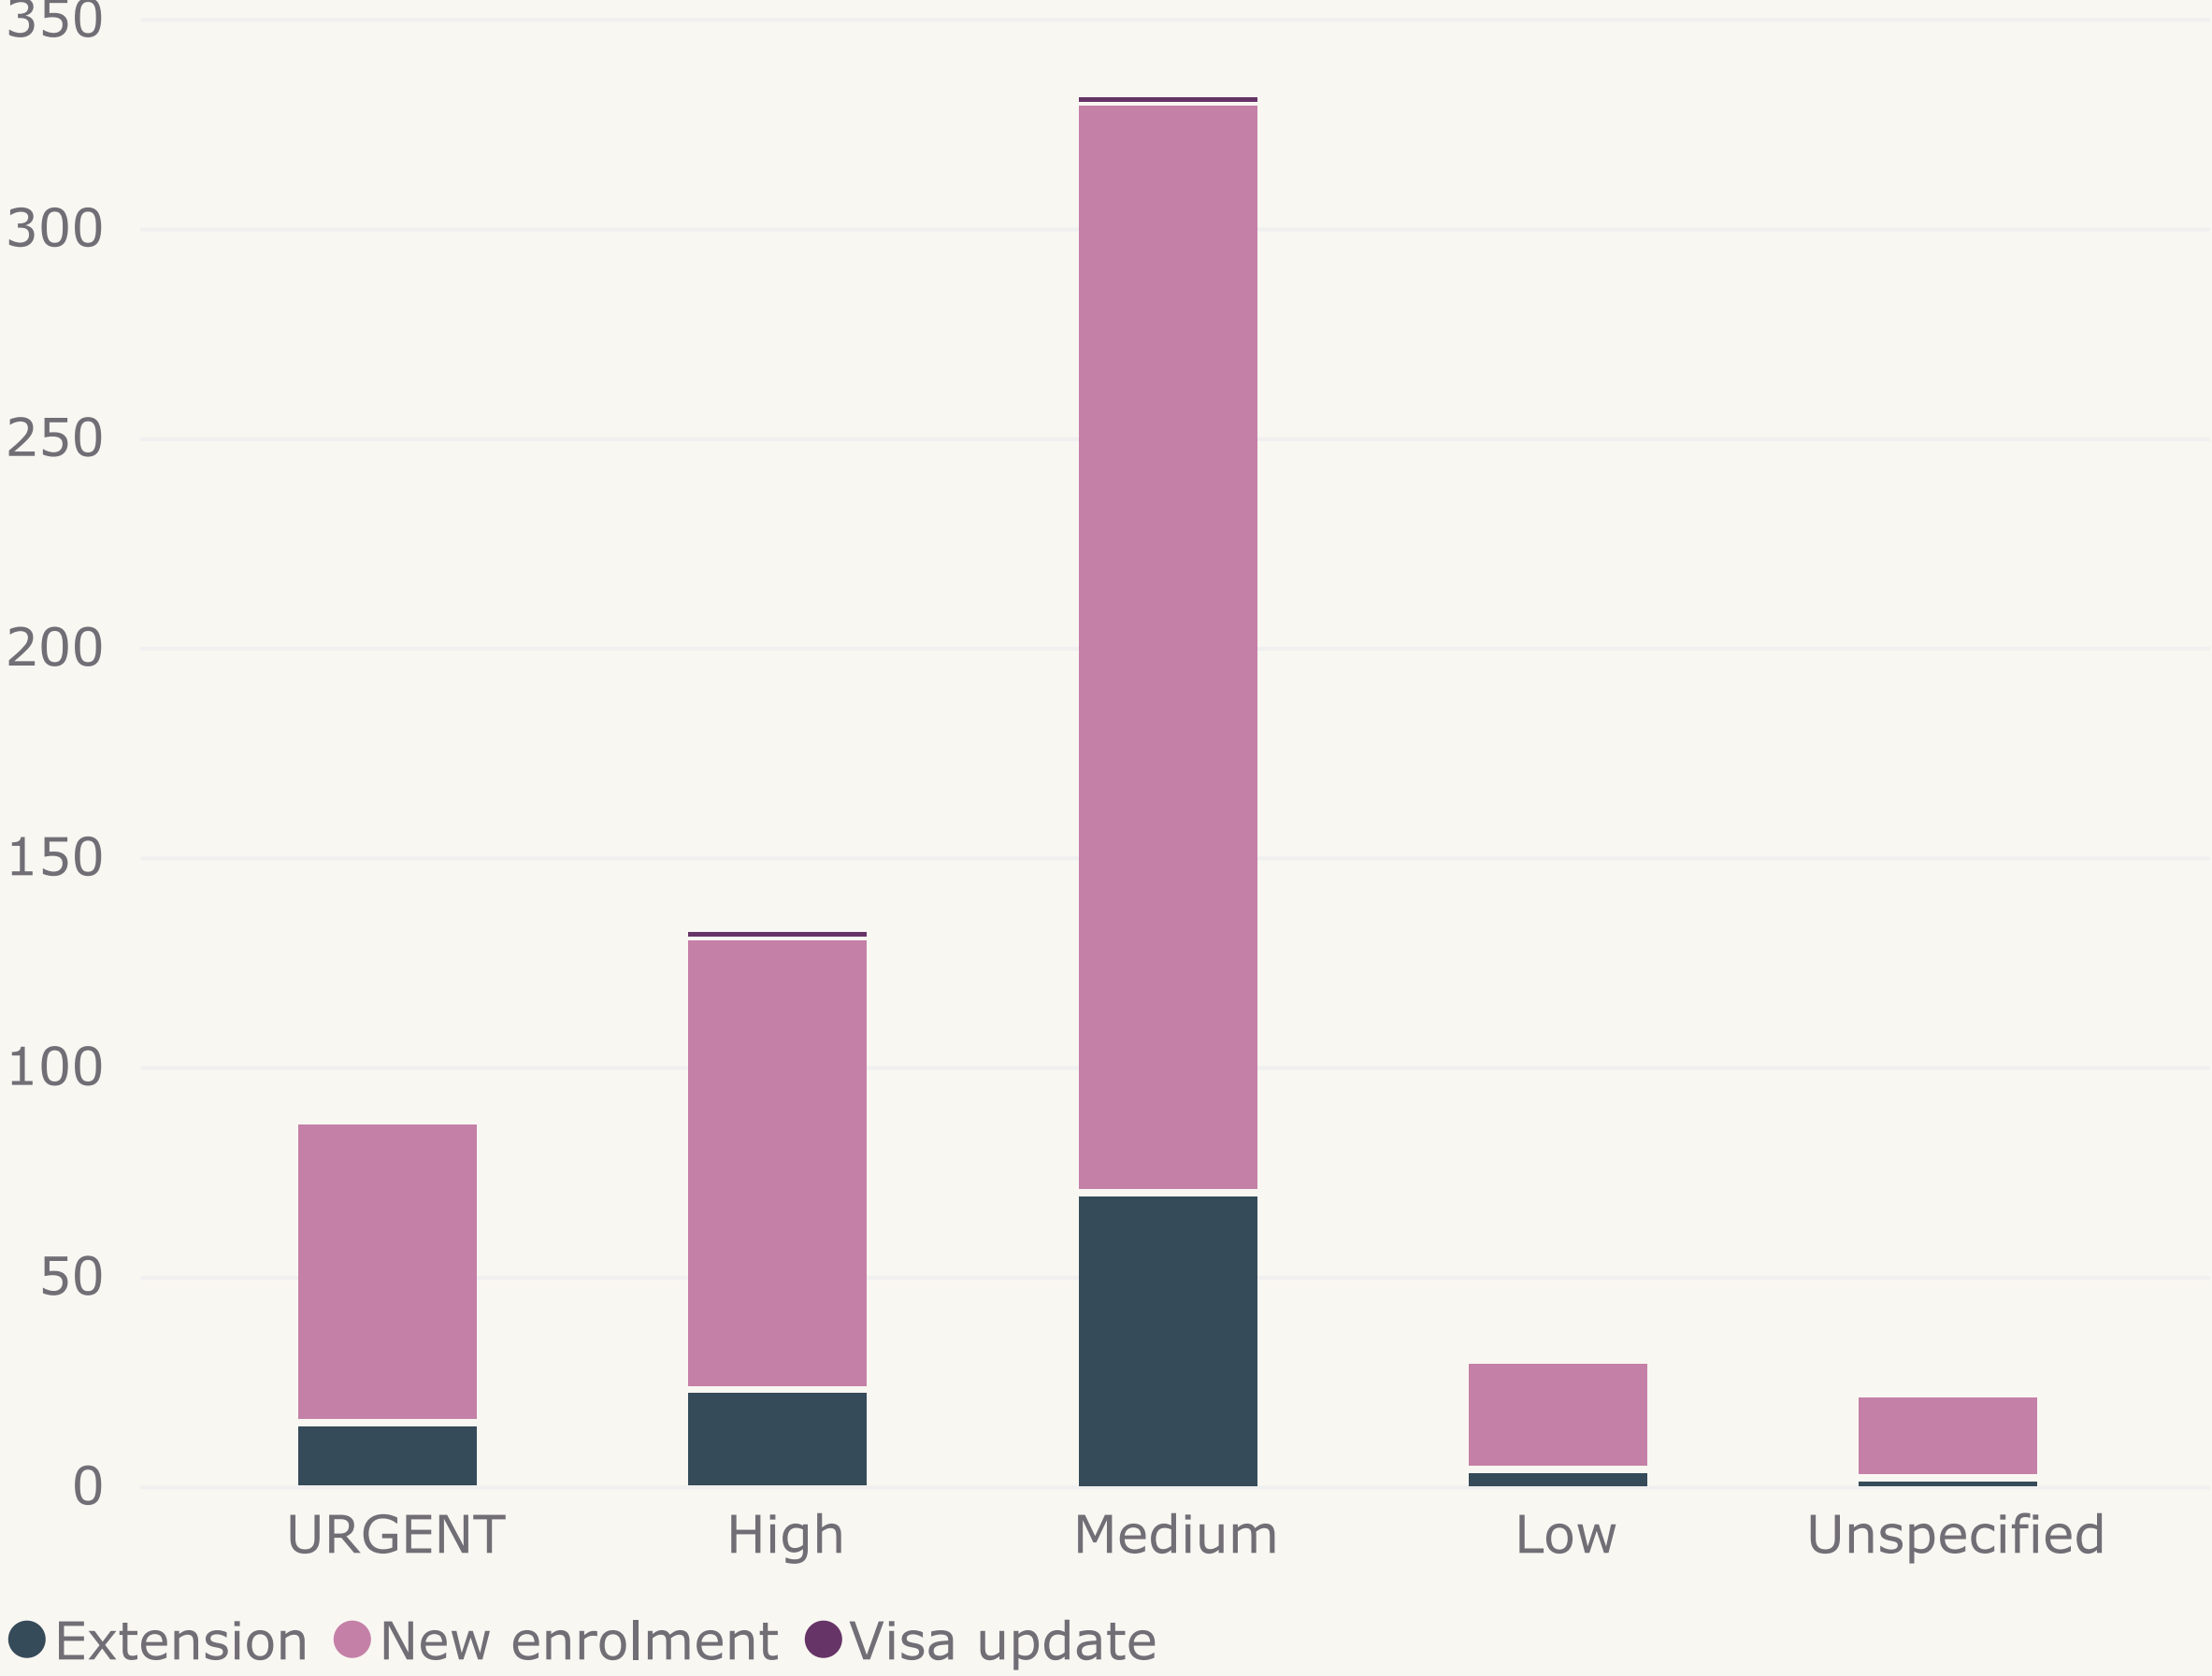

Who are the customers?

86% are aged 18–34; under-18 cases carry different guardianship requirements

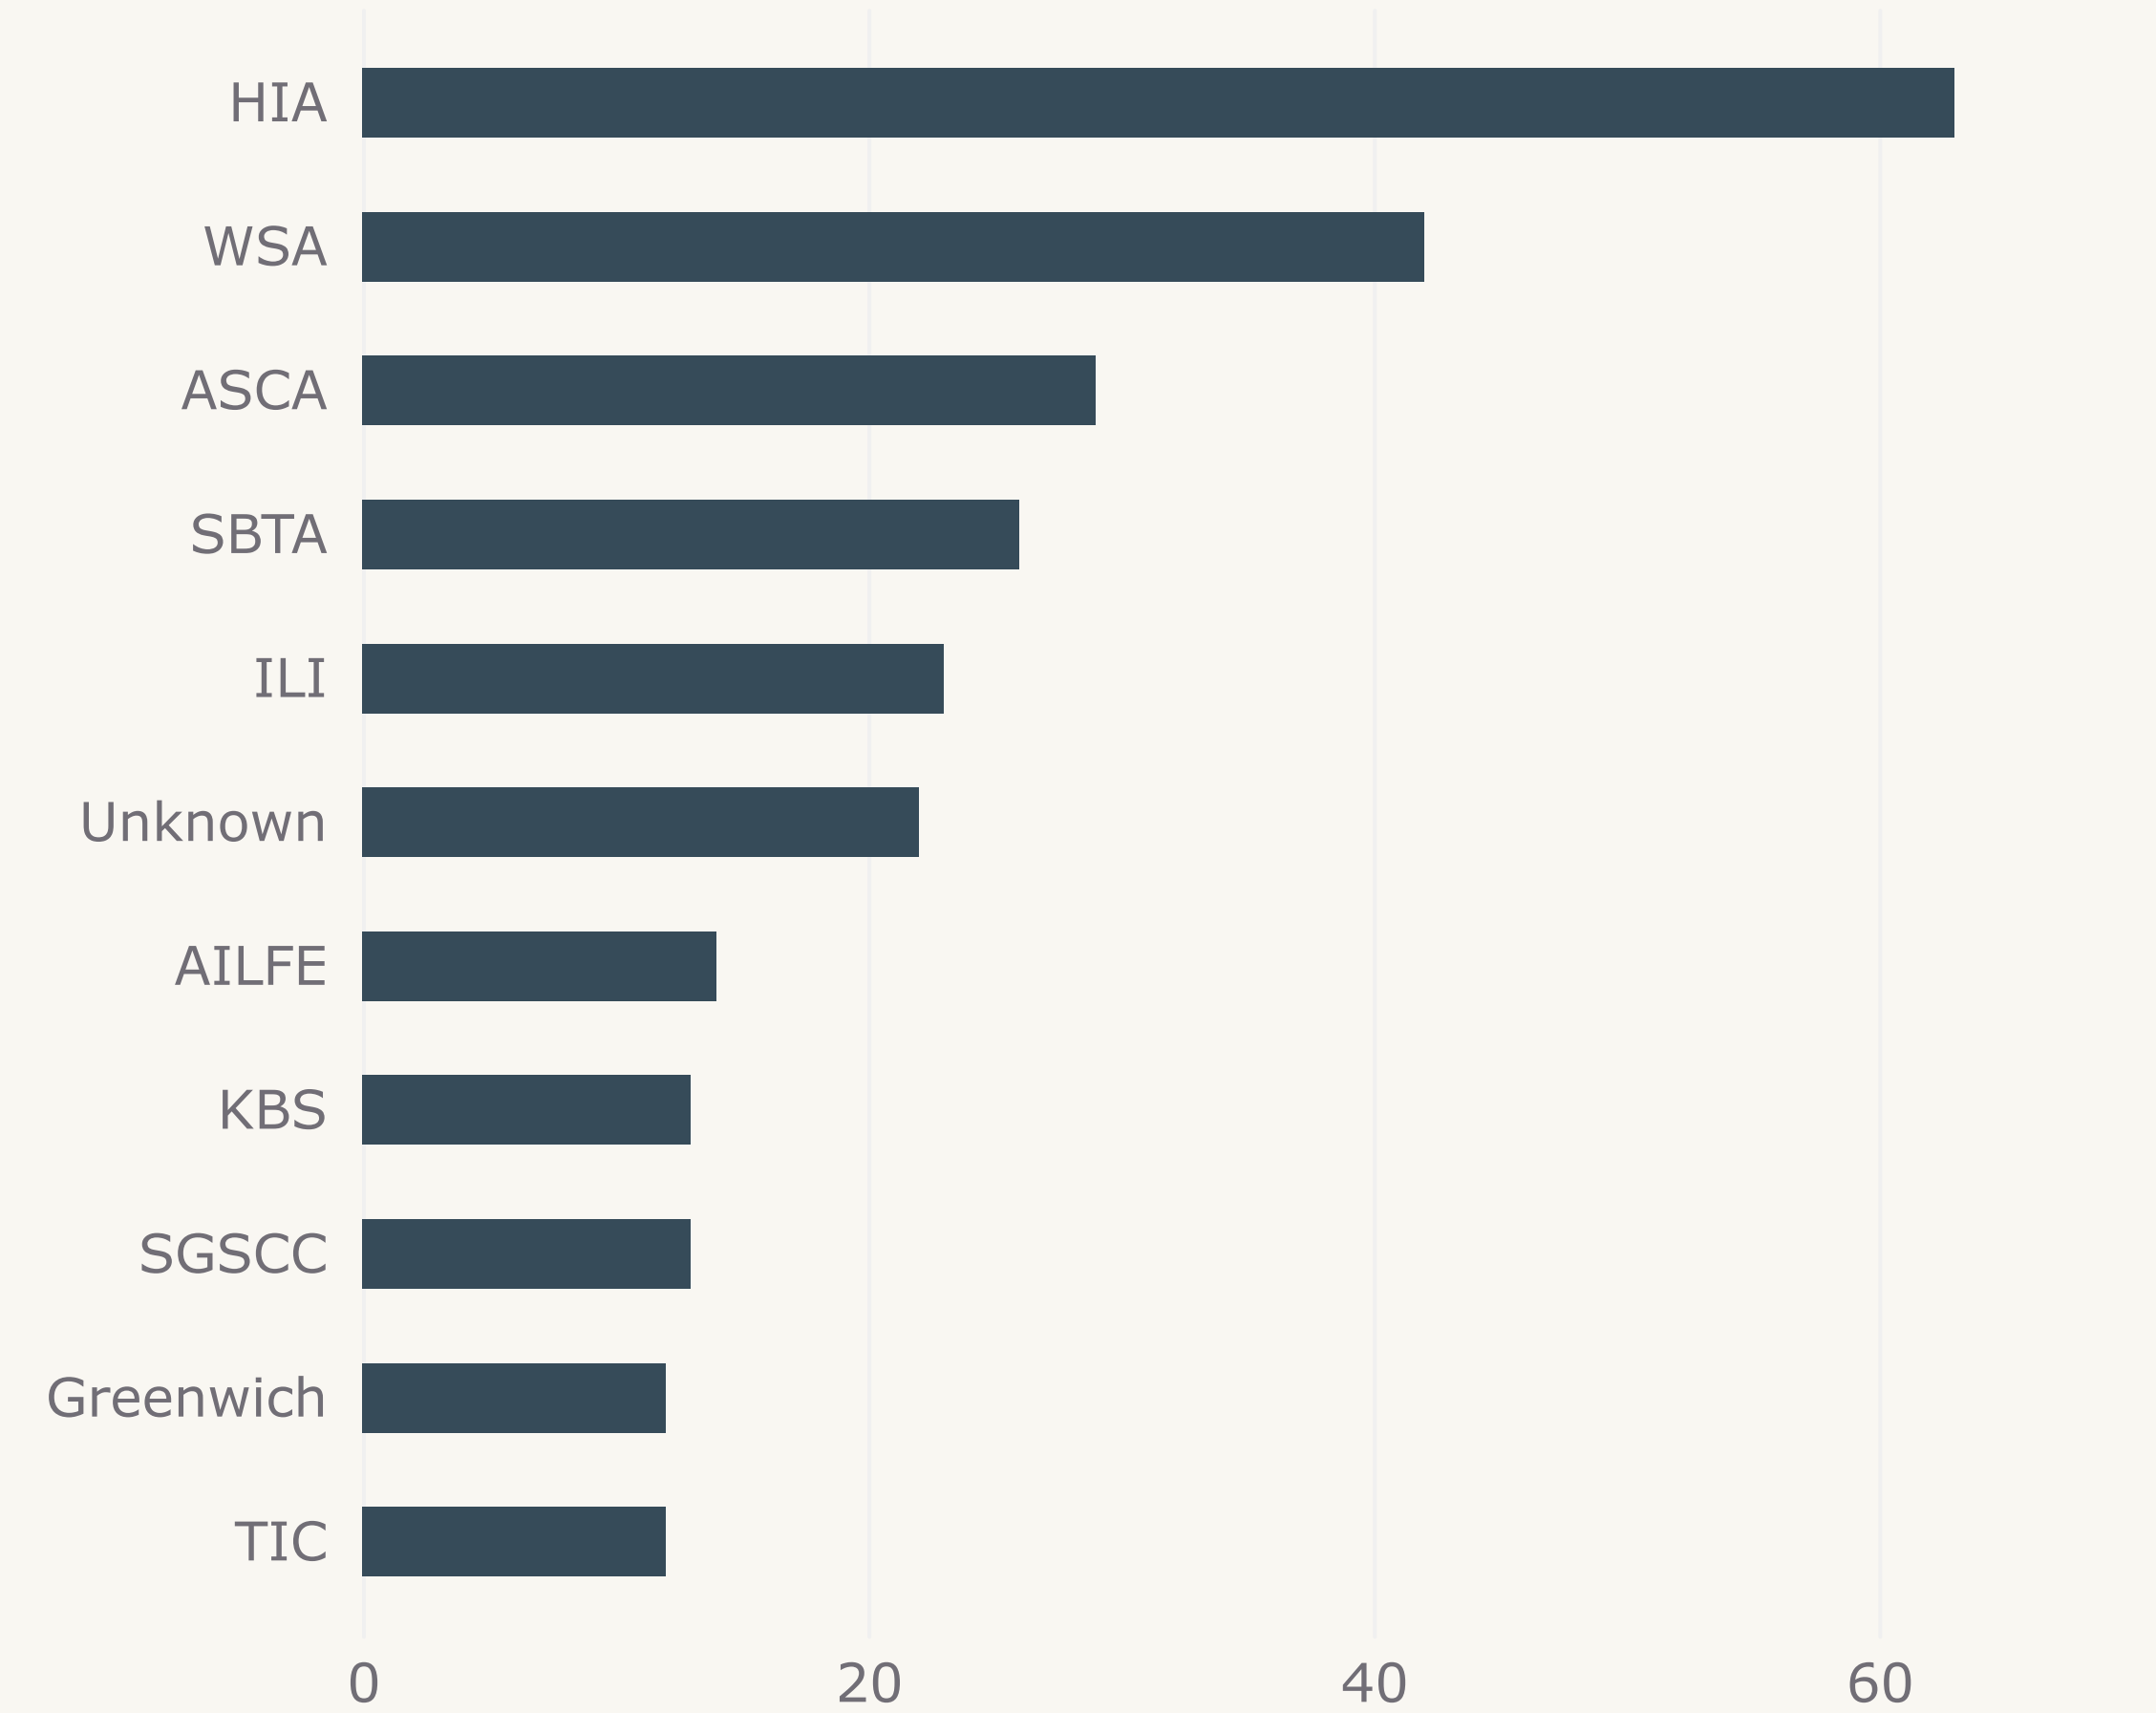

What kind of work makes up the caseload

Two in three cases are new enrolments, and most sit at Medium priority

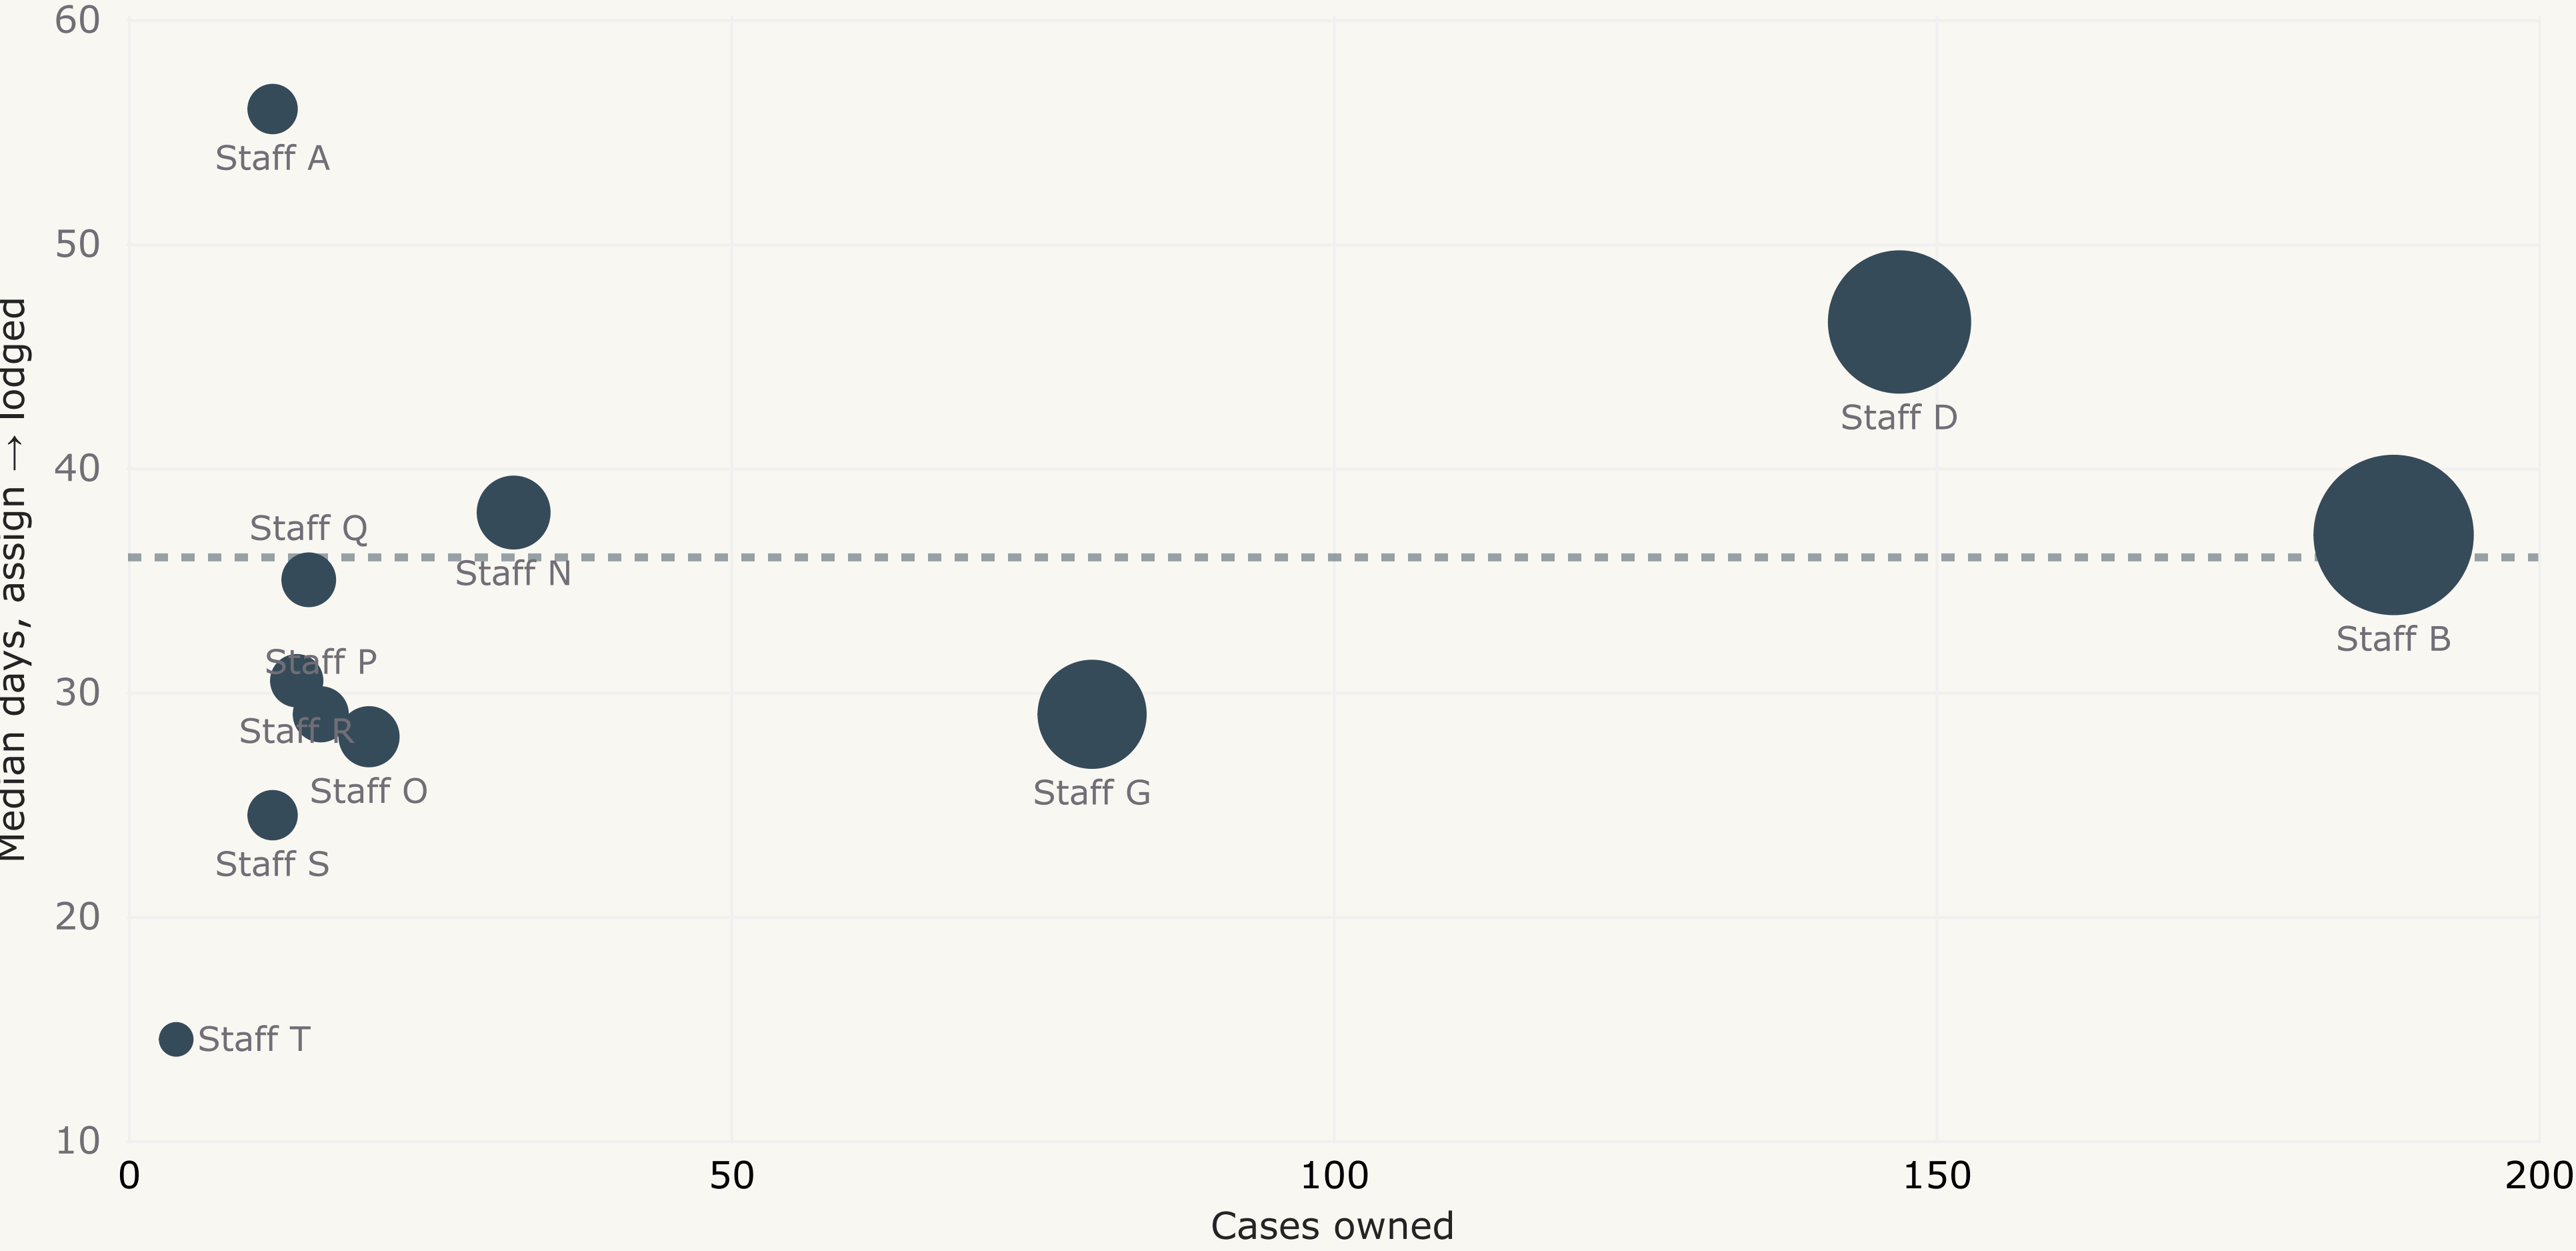

How concentrated is the provider list?

The top 10 cover under half; 103 providers appear in exactly one ca...

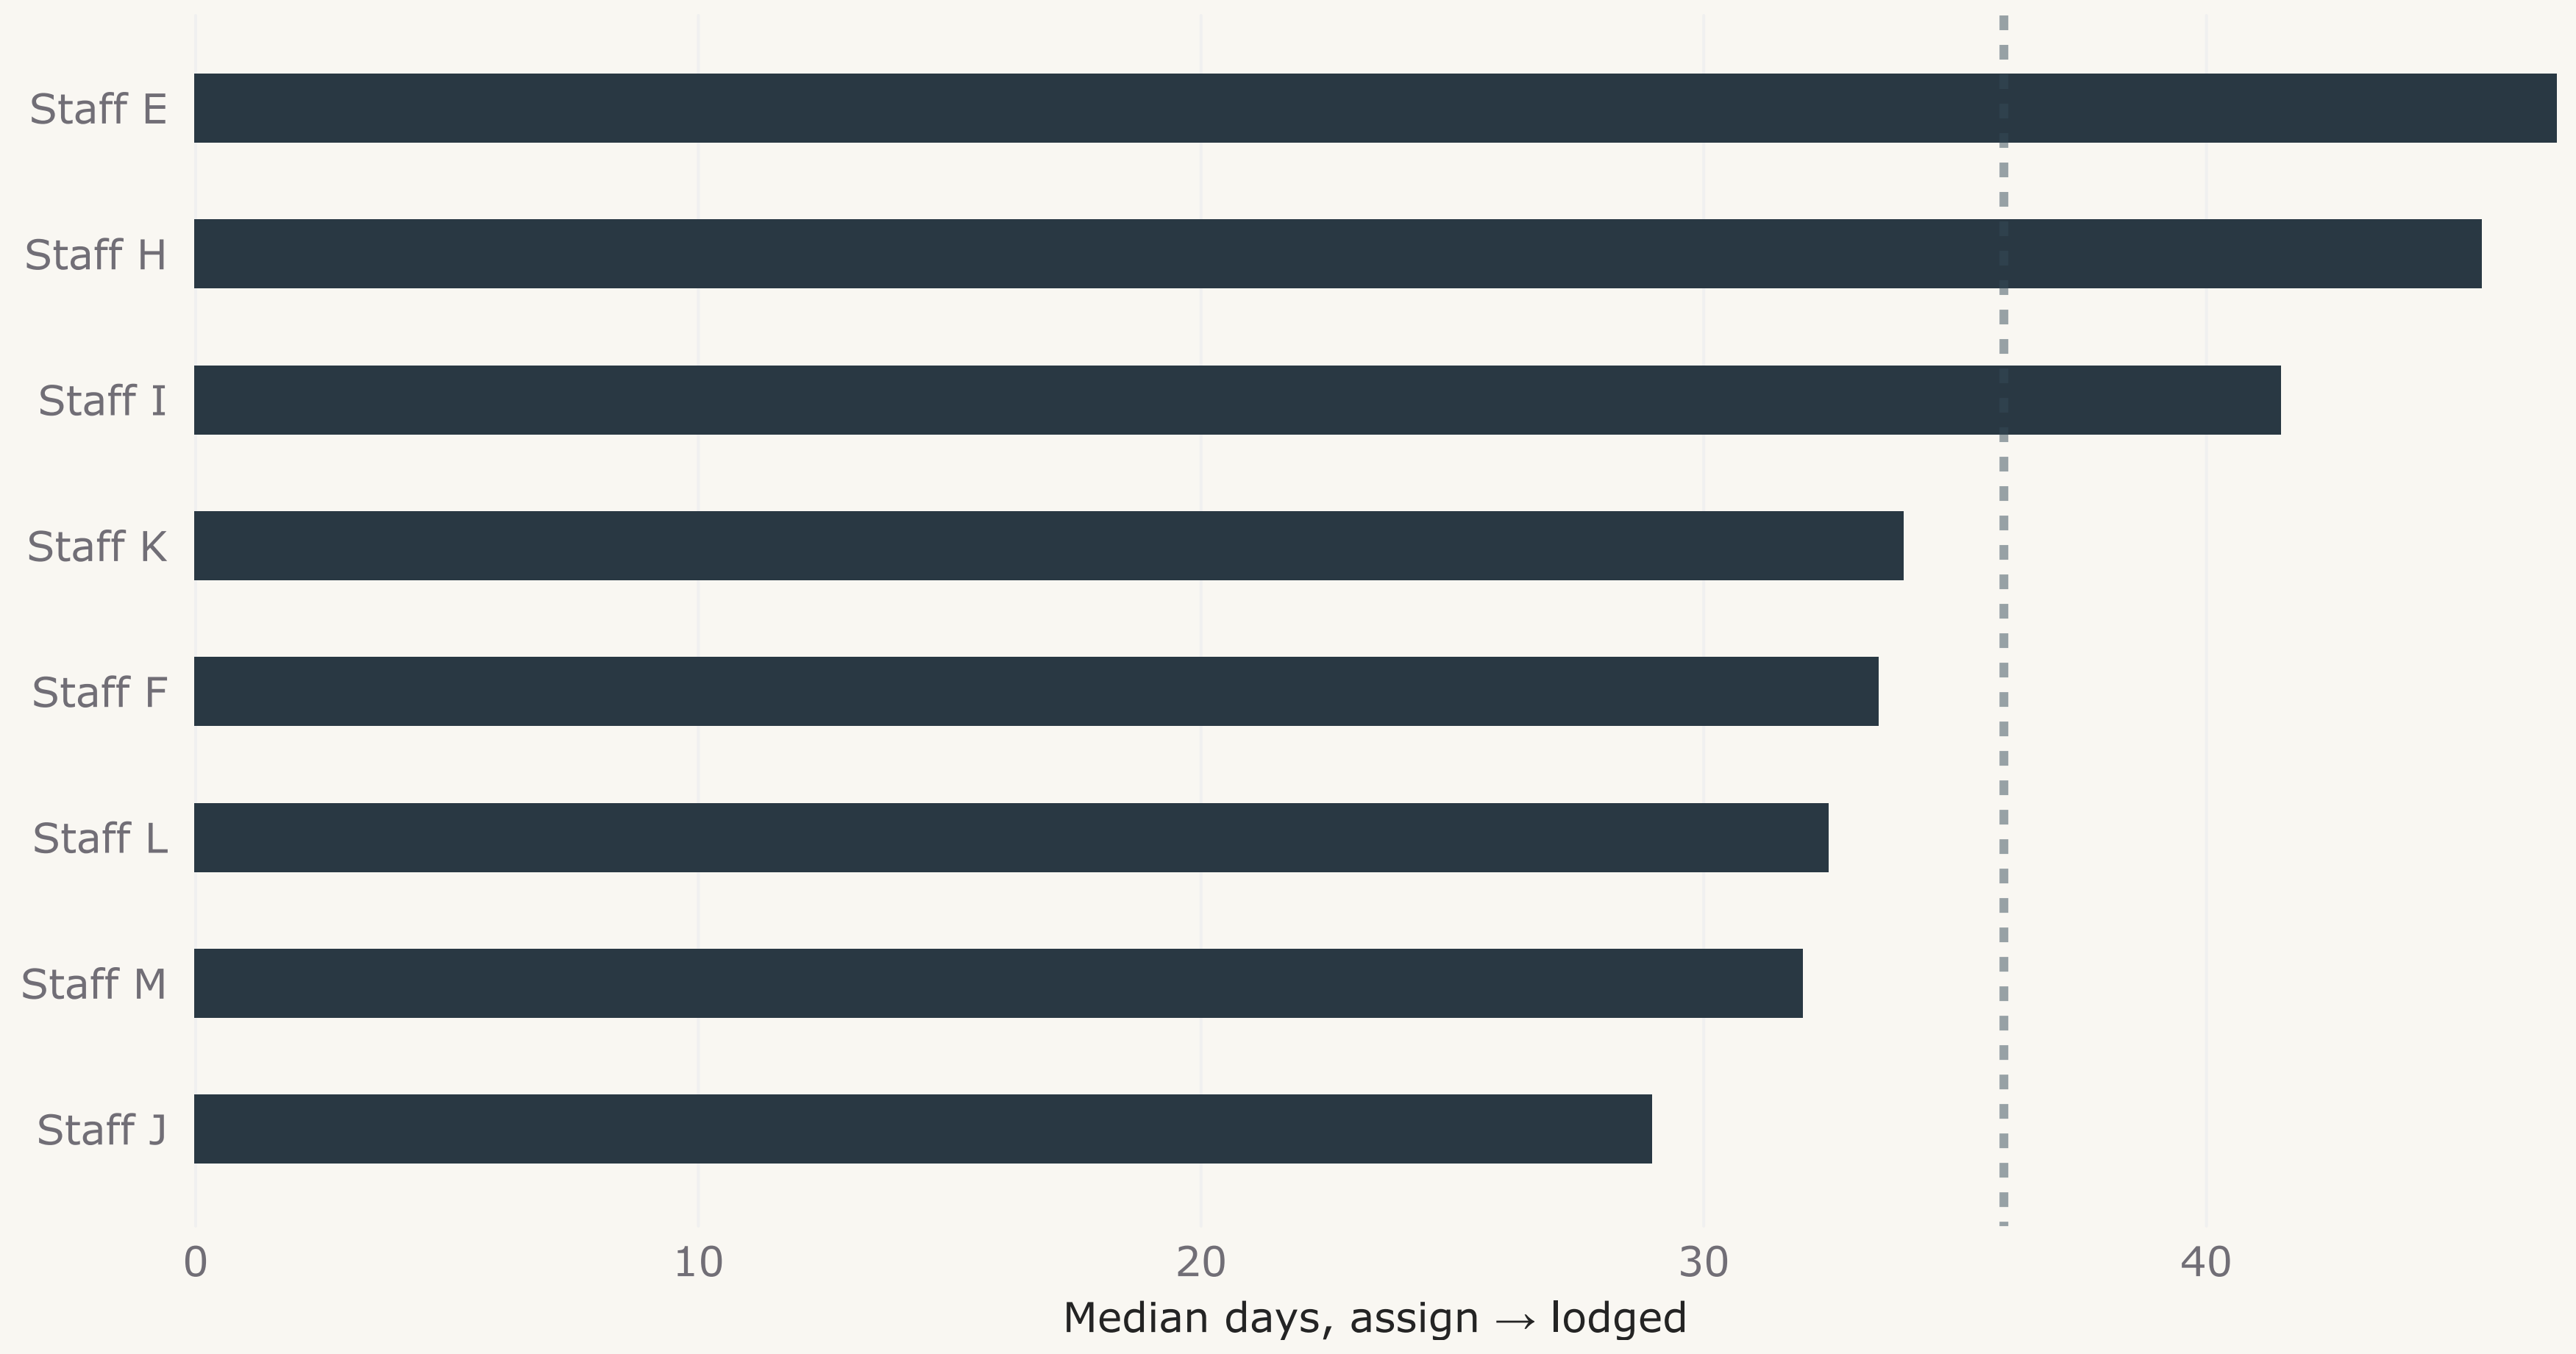

Carrying more cases doesn't make anyone slower

No the heaviest-loaded case manager sits on the 36-day median. One holds 188 of 540 cases; the lightest holds 3.

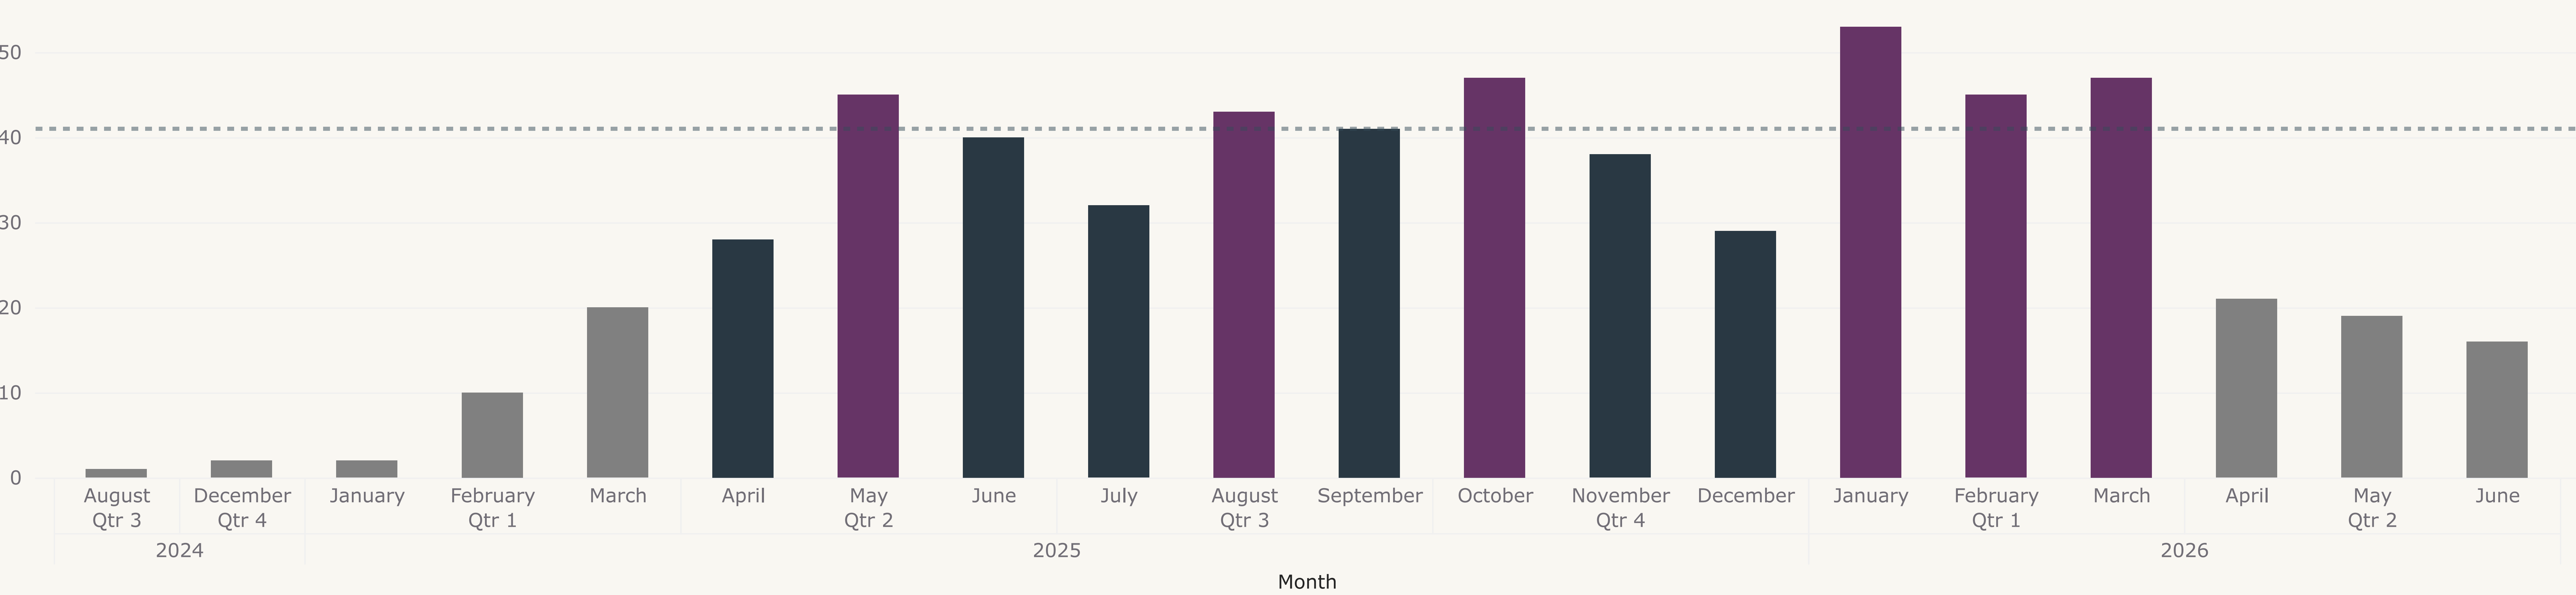

How much does execution speed vary?

29 to 47 days. Cases are allocated evenly, 68–82 each, so this isn't caseload.

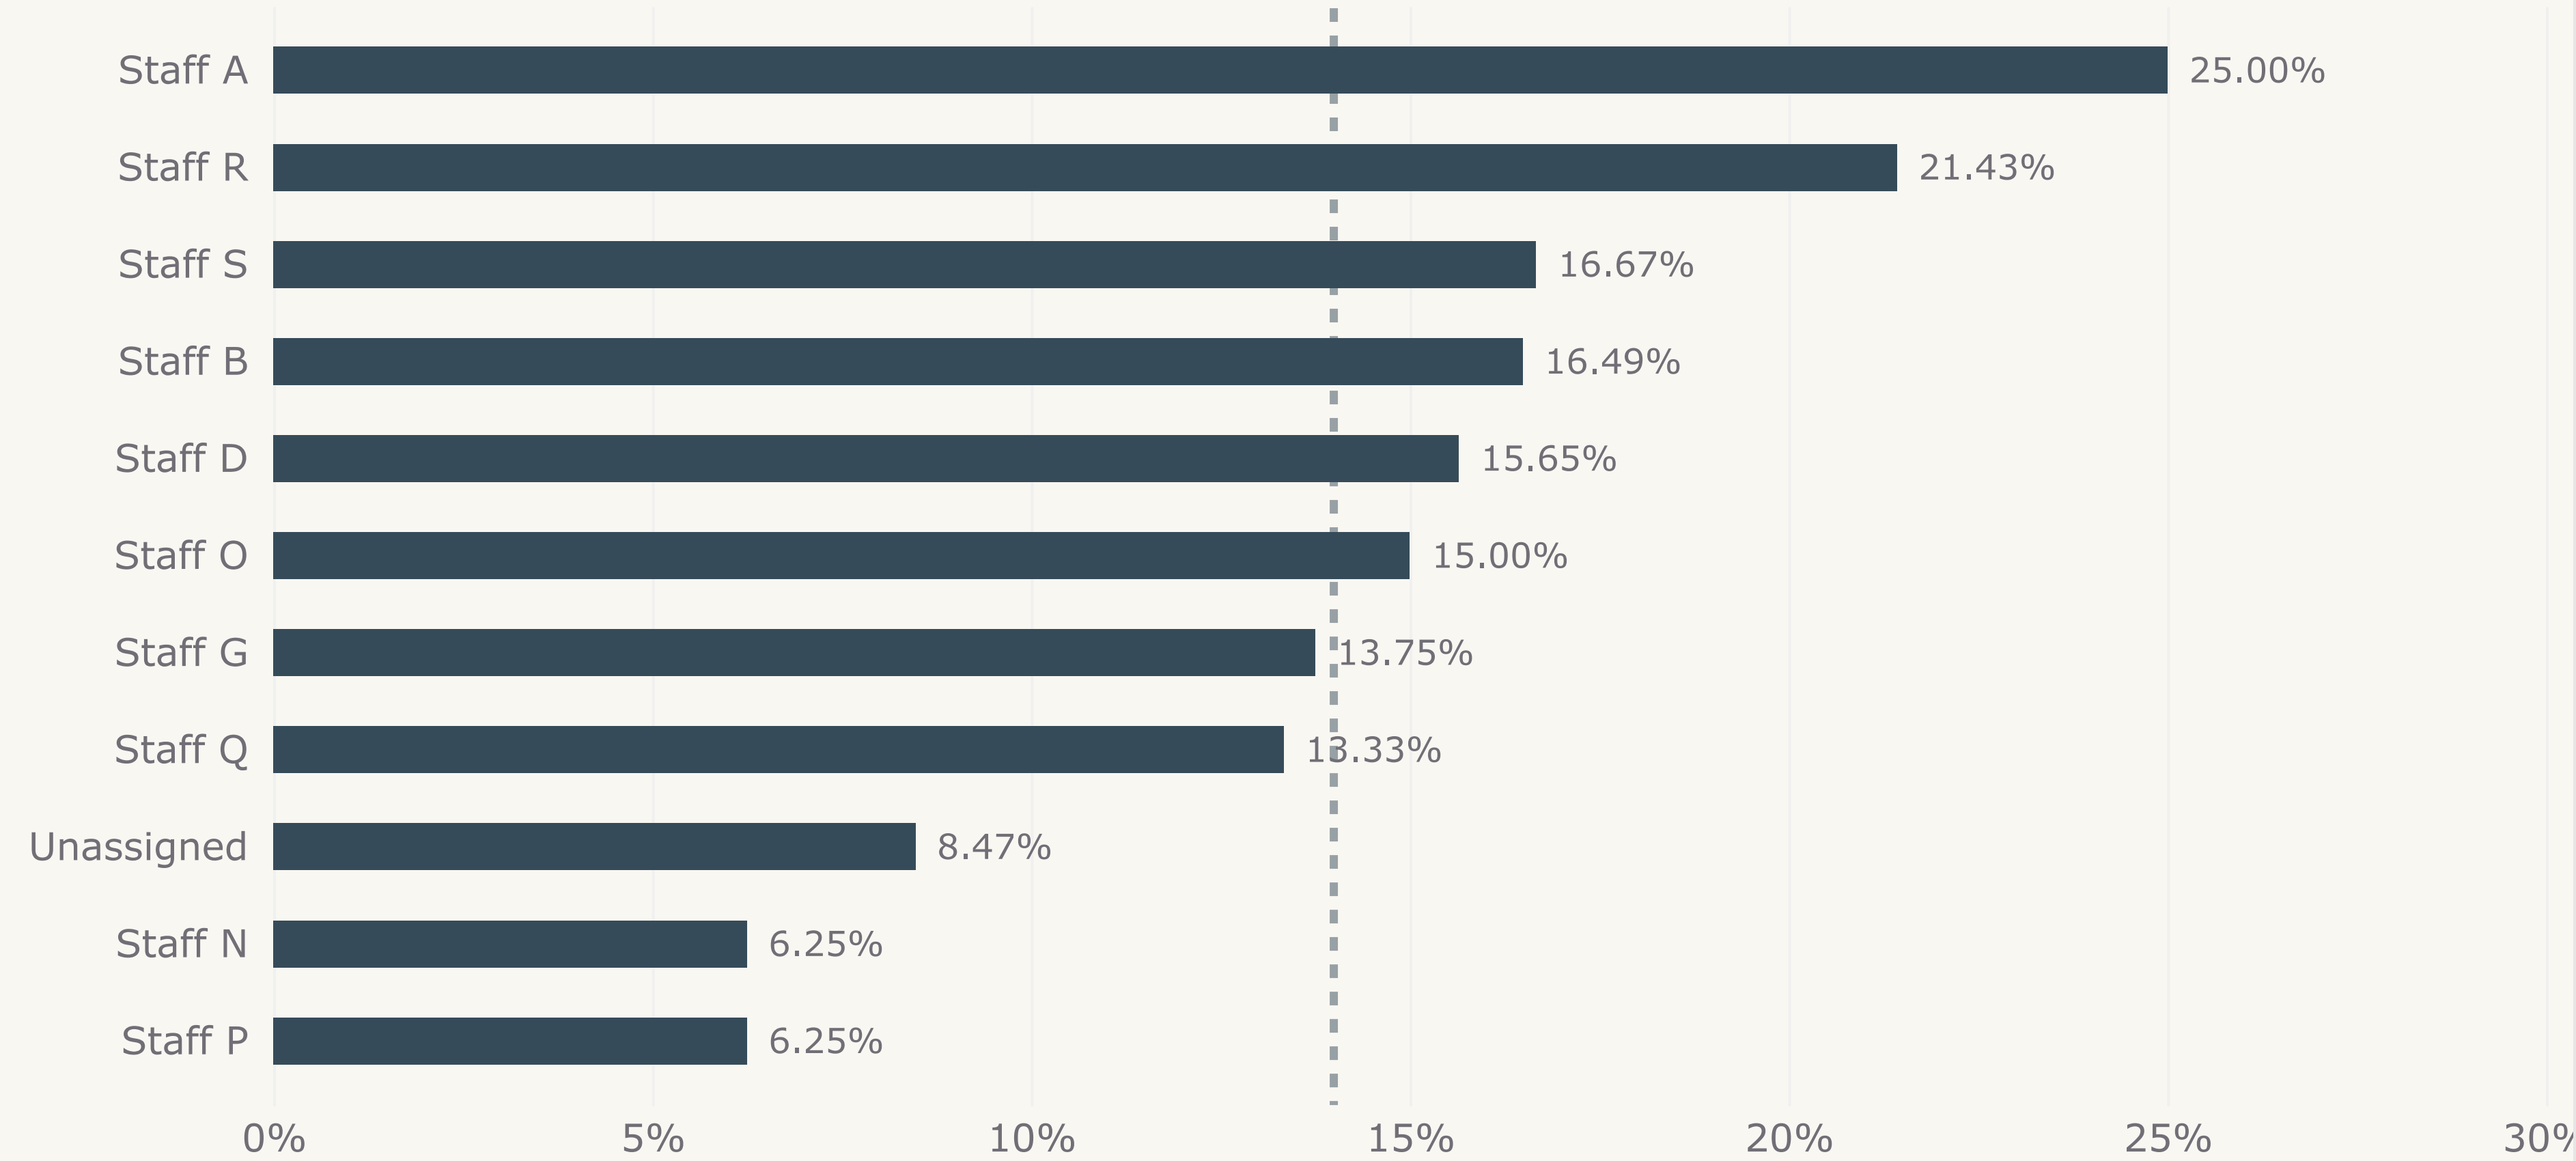

How much does demand swing across the year?

28 to 53 cases a month. Grey months are partial the archive holds finished cases only.

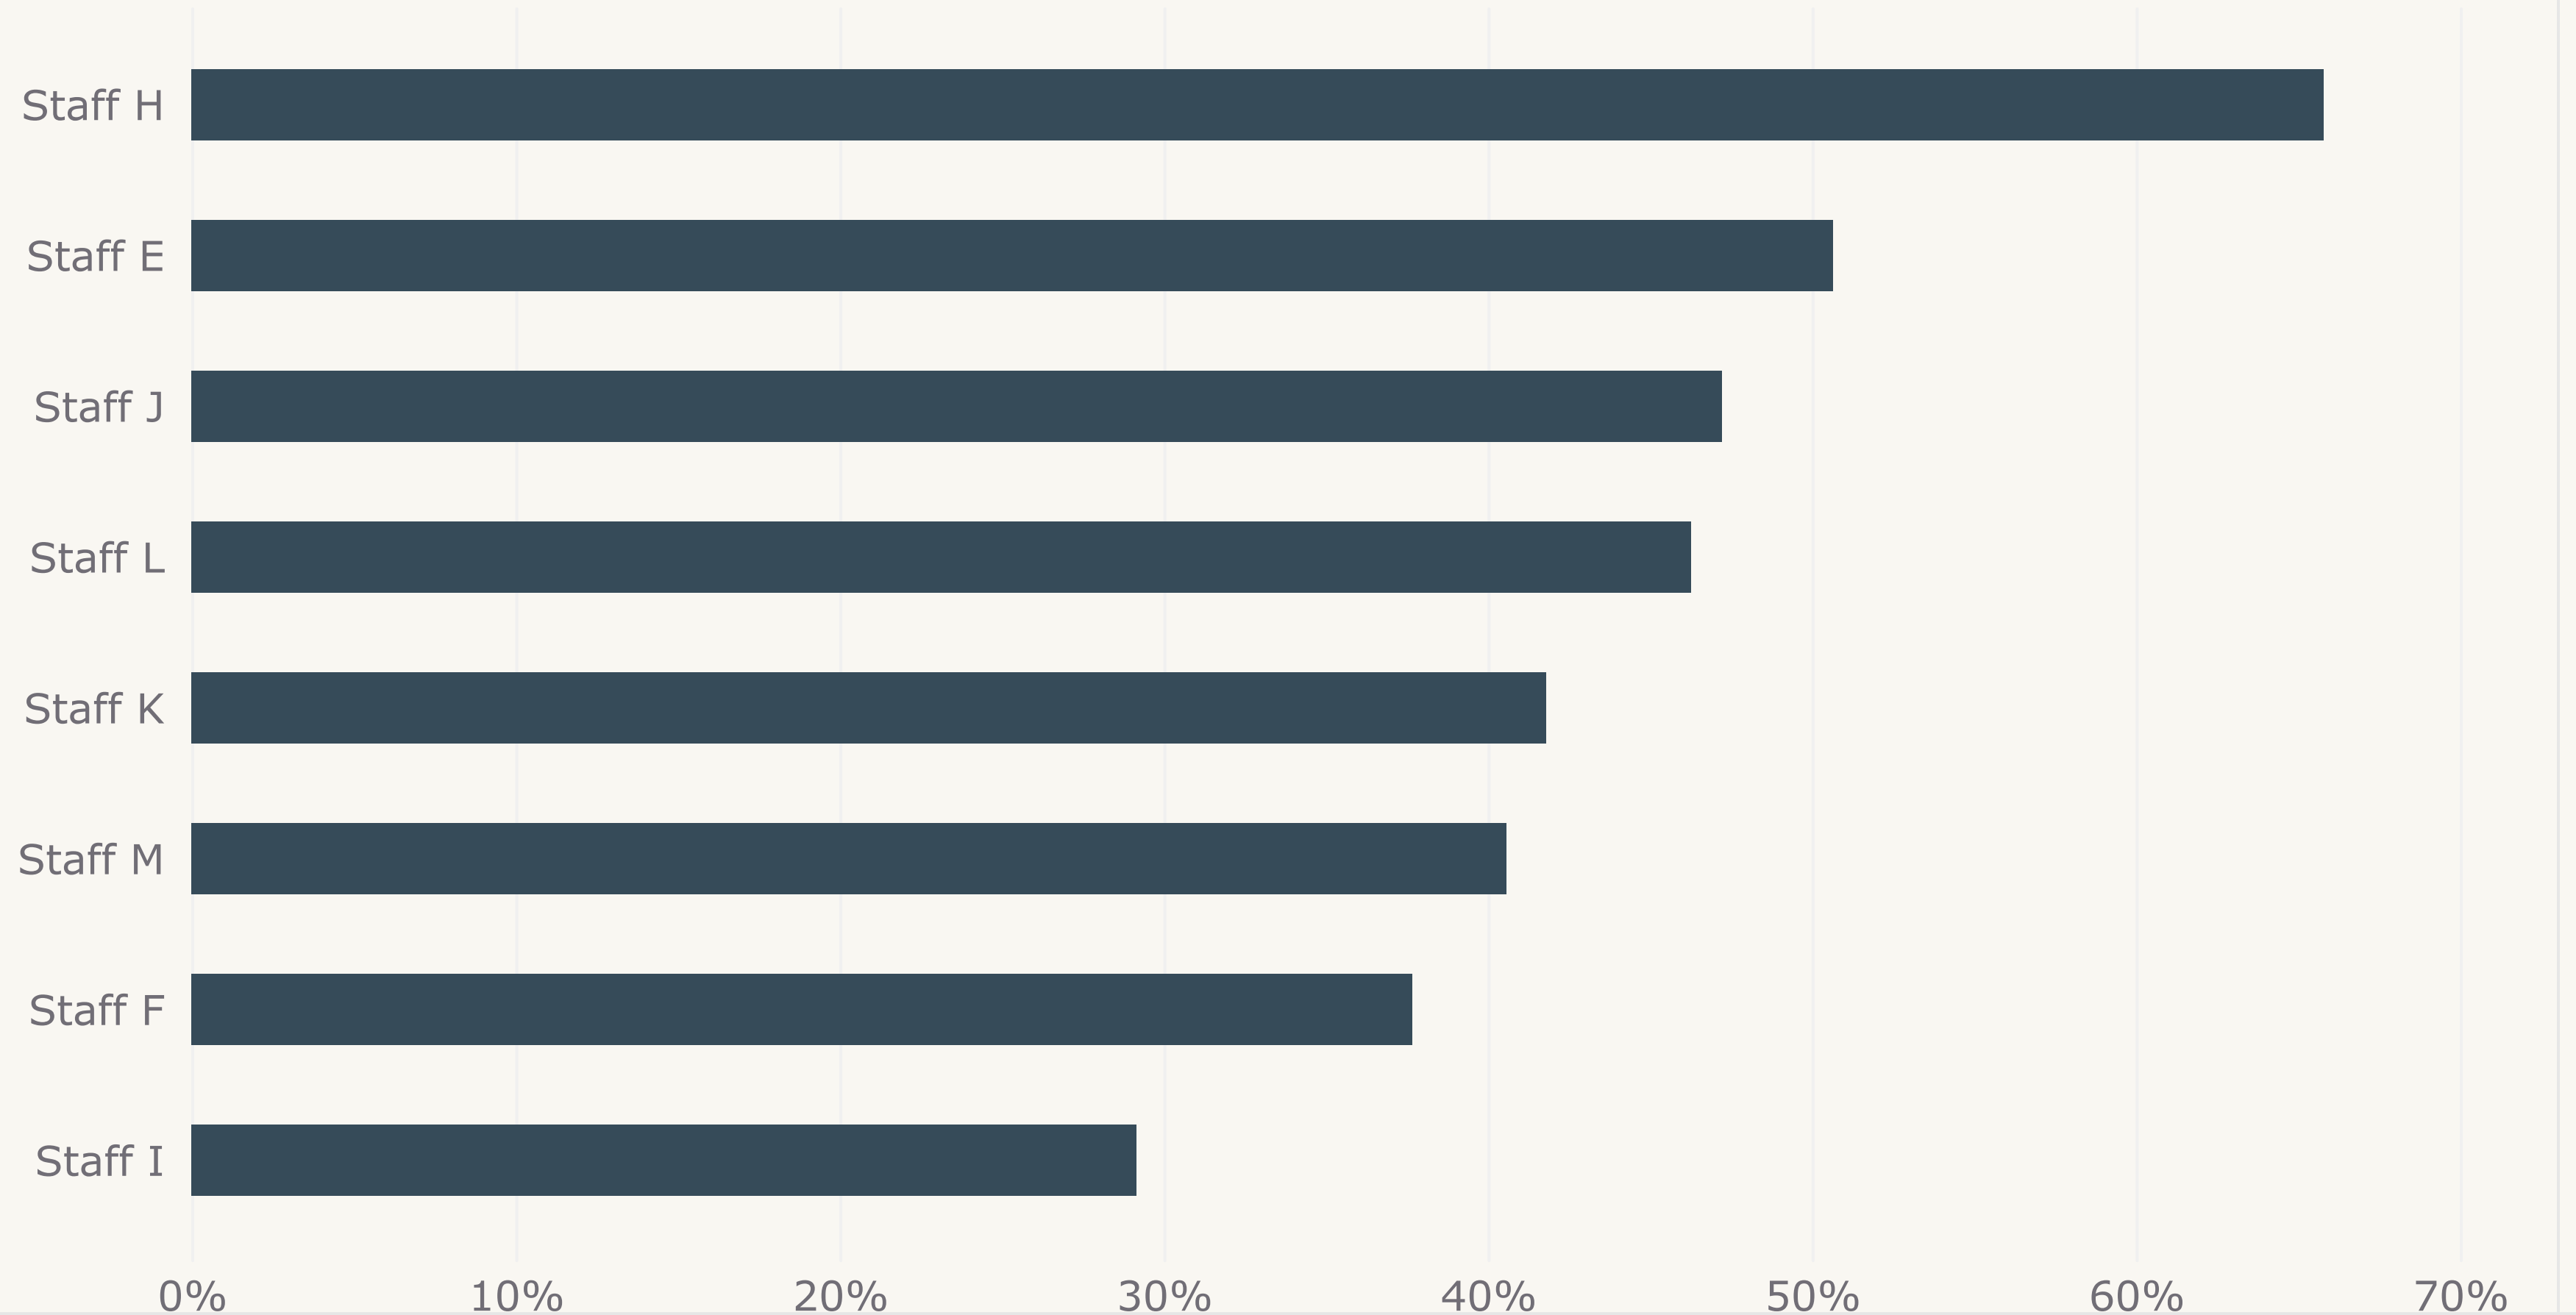

Is anyone handed a disproportionate share of urgent work?

Shares run 6–25% against a 14% average, but the extremes are all people with small caseloads.

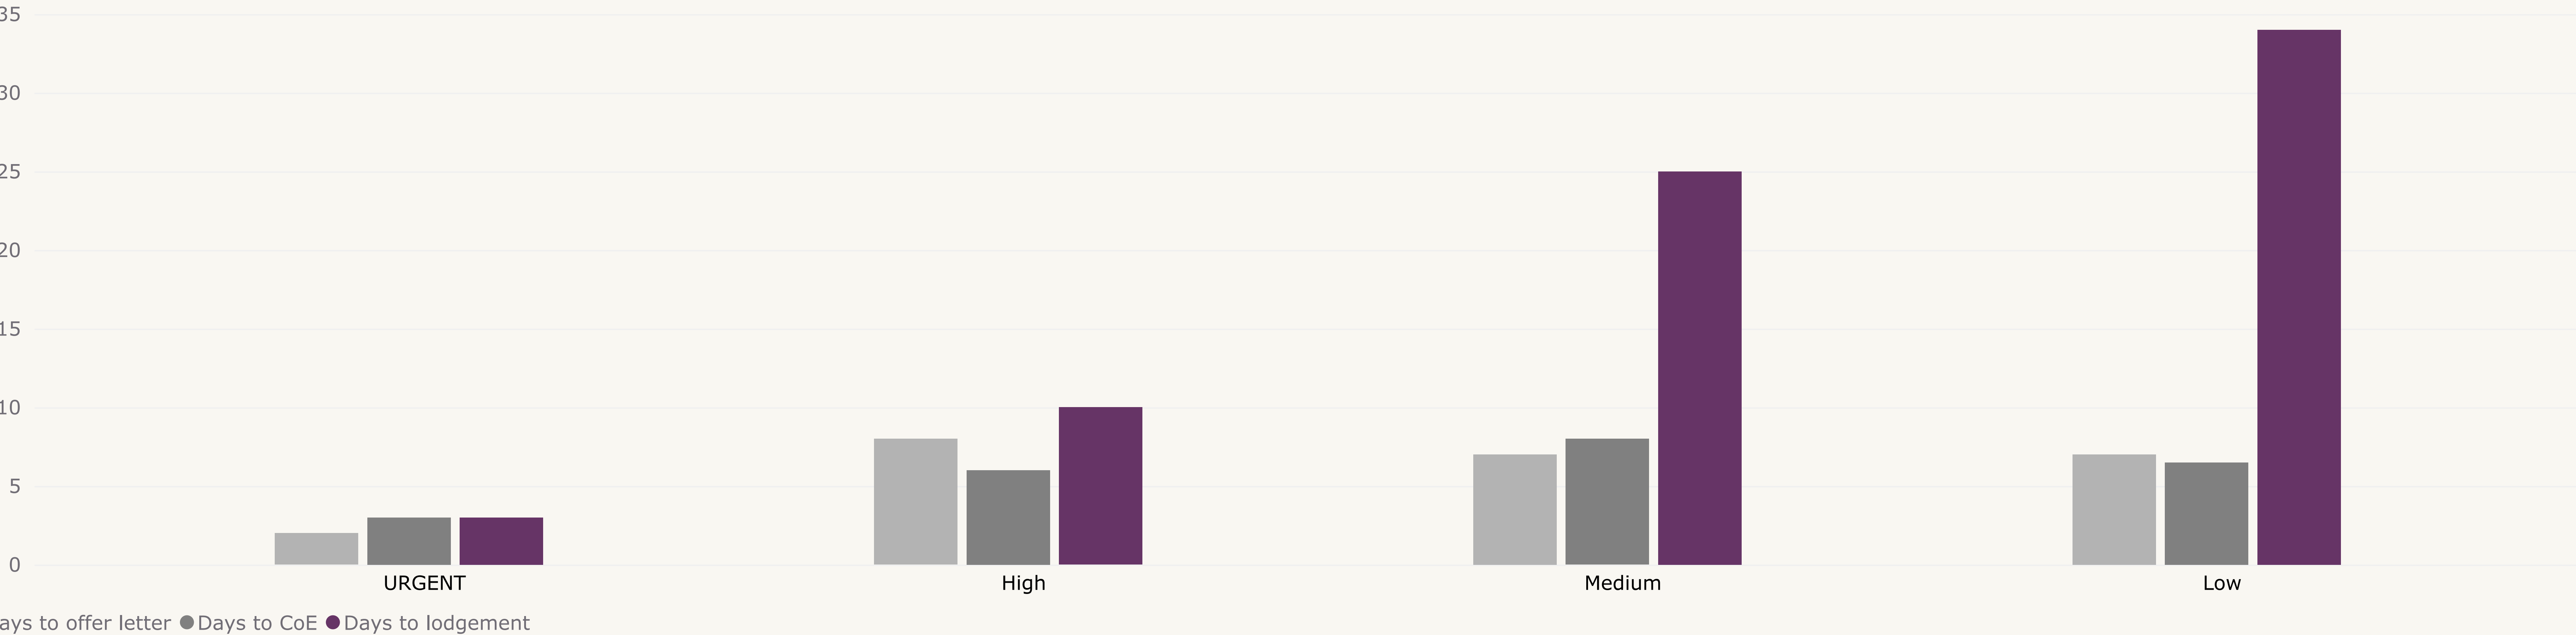

Is the missing submission date a person or a system problem?

System every visa officer leaves it blank on 29–66% of their cases.

Where does the time actually go?

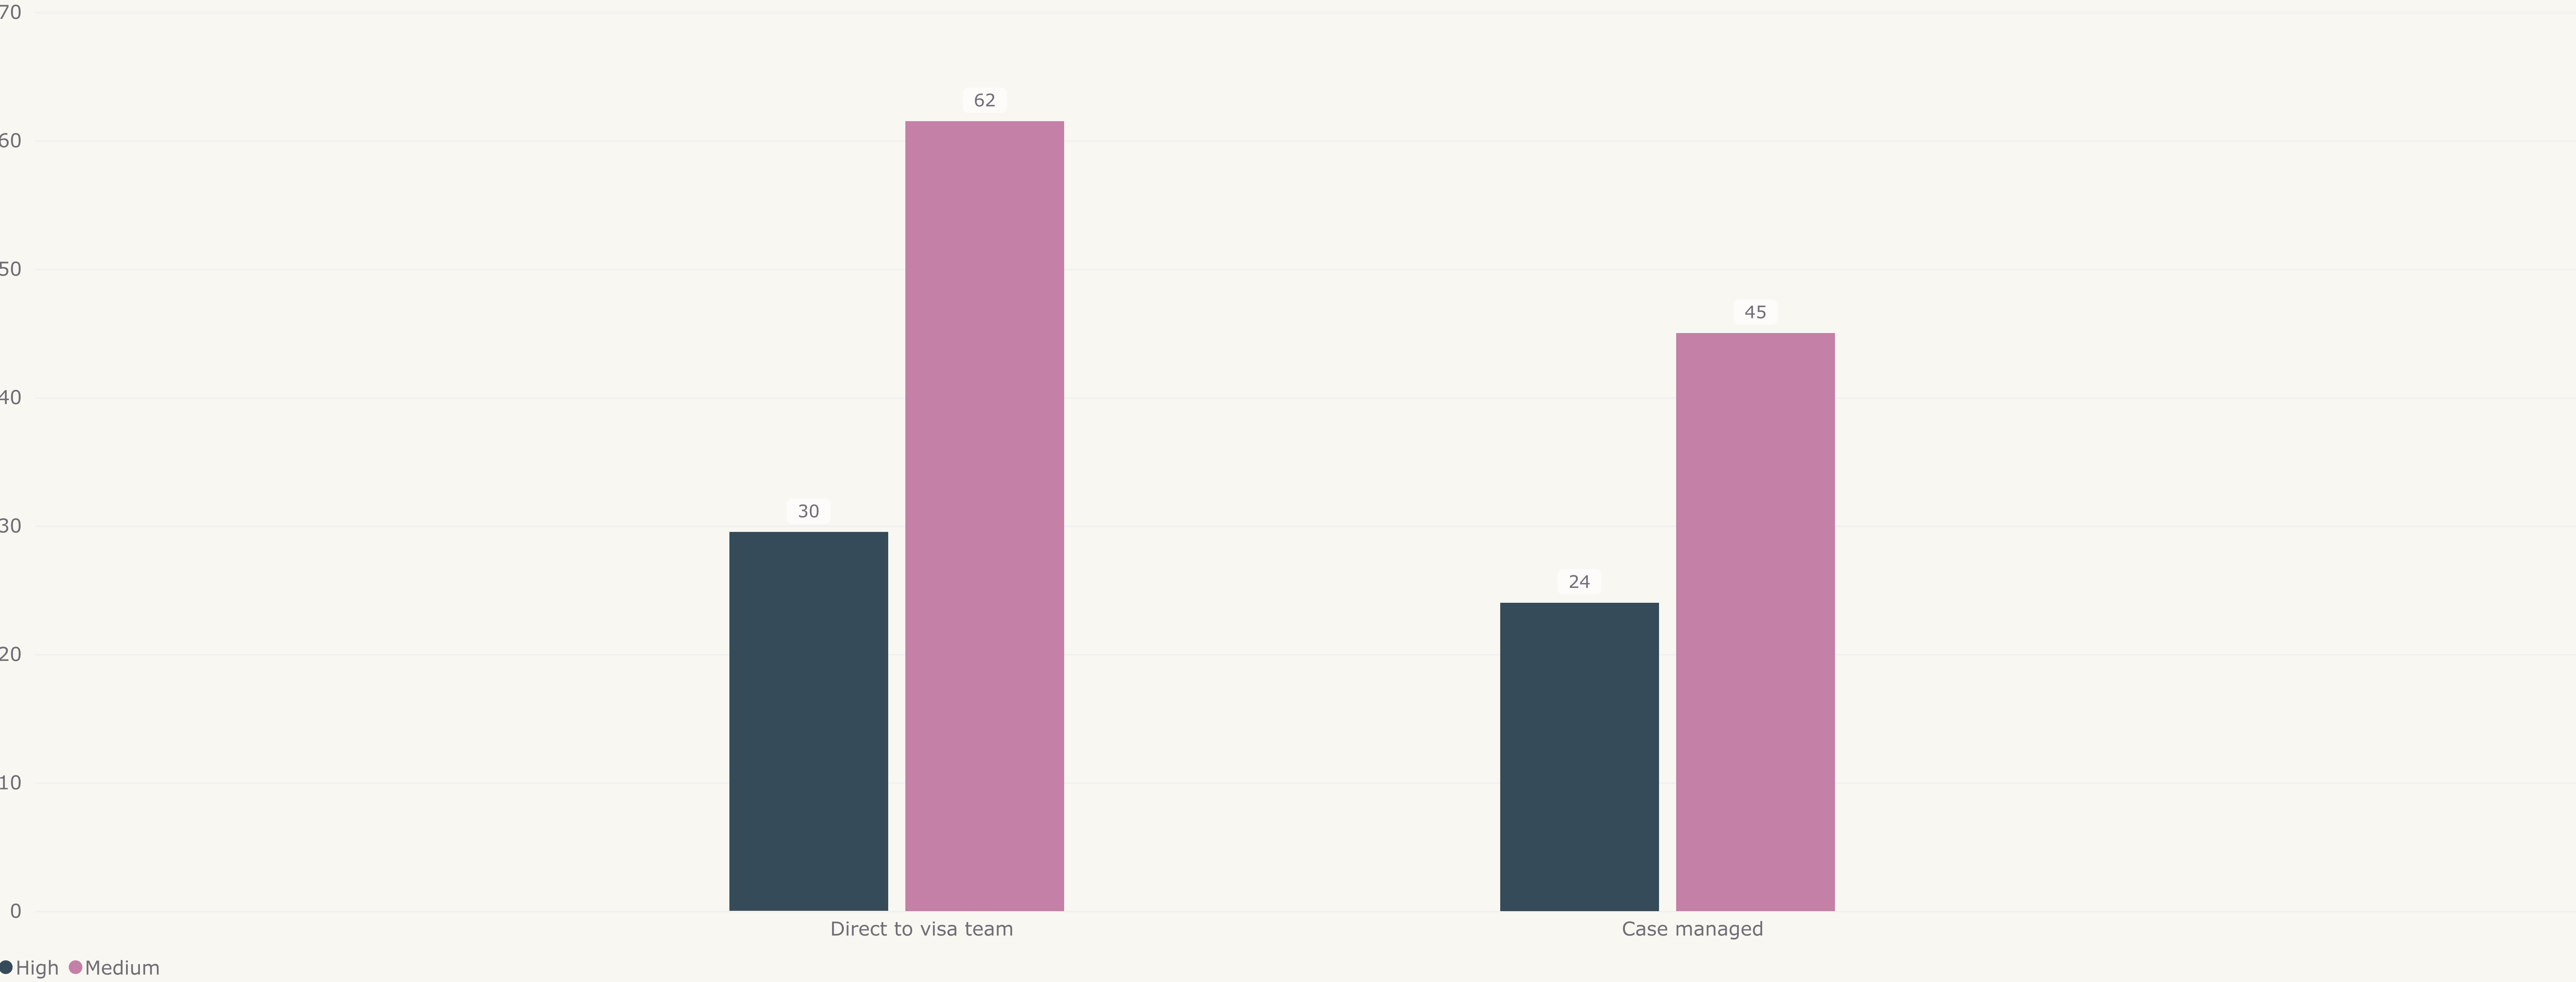

Mostly after the CoE and low-priority files wait 11× longer in that stage than urgent ones.

What kind of work skips the case manager?
Higher priority 41% marked High, against 20% on the managed route.

Route	URGENT	High	Medium	Low	Unspecified	Total
Case managed	81	108	306	27	18	540
Direct to visa team	5	24	25	2	3	59
Total	86	132	331	29	21	599

Do cases without a case manager take longer?
Yes 6 to 16 days longer at the same priority. Direct route n=59; observational.

Where the time goes

